

Portraits & Powerhouses: New Perspectives on Georgian Life

Wednesday 26th October 2011
14.15-17.15

Bowland Lecture Theatre
Berrick Saul Building
University of York

A review of current doctoral research into the Georgian period, hosted by the History of Art Department, University of York, in collaboration with the York Georgian Society

Speakers:

Tom Almeroth-Williams: The Equestrian Culture of Hanoverian London

Carolyn Dougherty: The Carrying Trade and the First Railways in England

Matt Jenkins: Antiquity and Improvement: Polite Shopping in Georgian York

Joanne O'Hara: A Scottish Origin for English Palladianism Revisited

Chair: Dr Richard Hewlings

Afternoon tea provided
All welcome. Admission free

Seats are limited. To reserve your place please contact Fran Sands:
E: fsands@soane.org.uk; A: Sir John Soane's Museum,
13 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3BP