

YORK GEORGIAN SOCIETY

If you are interested in York's rich heritage of Georgian architecture or, more generally, in the visual arts and other cultural aspects of the 'long eighteenth century' in Britain, then please join us. While supporting the Society in its core function of monitoring and advising on planning applications affecting Georgian buildings in and around York, you will enjoy the following benefits of membership:

- free admission to an acclaimed series of winter lectures on wide-ranging aspects of the Georgian period
- the chance to participate in special visits to Georgian houses and other buildings, sometimes not normally open to the public
- receipt of the Society's illustrated Annual Report

York Georgian Society was founded in 1939 to promote the preservation and care of Georgian buildings in and around York, while fostering the study and appreciation of them. Its scope today extends to promoting education and interest in all aspects of Georgian culture of the period from 1660, the year of George I's birth, to 1837, the year of William IV's death. It is the second oldest society outside London devoted to the Georgian era. To join the Society please complete the application form. If you are a UK tax payer, please complete the Gift Aid declaration as it will increase the value of your subscription at no cost to yourself. Paying by Standing Order reduces the administrative burden on the Society. Subscriptions are renewable on 1 October each year.

We hope you will join us and look forward to welcoming you!
